FOUR SEASONS HOTELS

Istanbul

Istanbul, the empress of cities and the city of empresses and sultans. This magical city, seat of three empires, has enchanted people from all over the world with its mystique, character and energy for millennia.

The elegant minarets, the countless domes that turn golden in sunset, constantly changing colors of the Bosphorus, traditions kept alive by a lively and modern culture are just part of the allure that make Istanbul a favorite destination for travelers.

What better place to join two loving hearts together than this city where continents come together, different cultures and religions come together and thrive side by side and unforgettable memories are created every day.

With two distinctly different but equally impressive hotels in Istanbul, Four Seasons hosts some of the most memorable weddings in modern history.

ISTANBUL, AN ENCHANTING SETTING
FOR A STORY-BOOK-WEDDING.

Four Seasons Bosphorus

The ever changing moods of the Bosphorus, elegant yachts lazily sailing along one of the most beautiful waterways of the world, breathtaking scenery coupled with the impeccable Four Seasons approach make each and every wedding shine like a gem, as unique as the two people who make their vows.

The seaside terrace at Four Seasons Hotel Istanbul at the Bosphorus, the Atik Pasha Terrace is an ideal setting for al fresco summer weddings under the glimmering stars while reflection of the city lights on the water create a spectacular backdrop. Lending itself perfectly to all types of weddings ranging from elegant or traditional to funky and trendy, the venue is one of the largest of its kind along the Bosphorus.

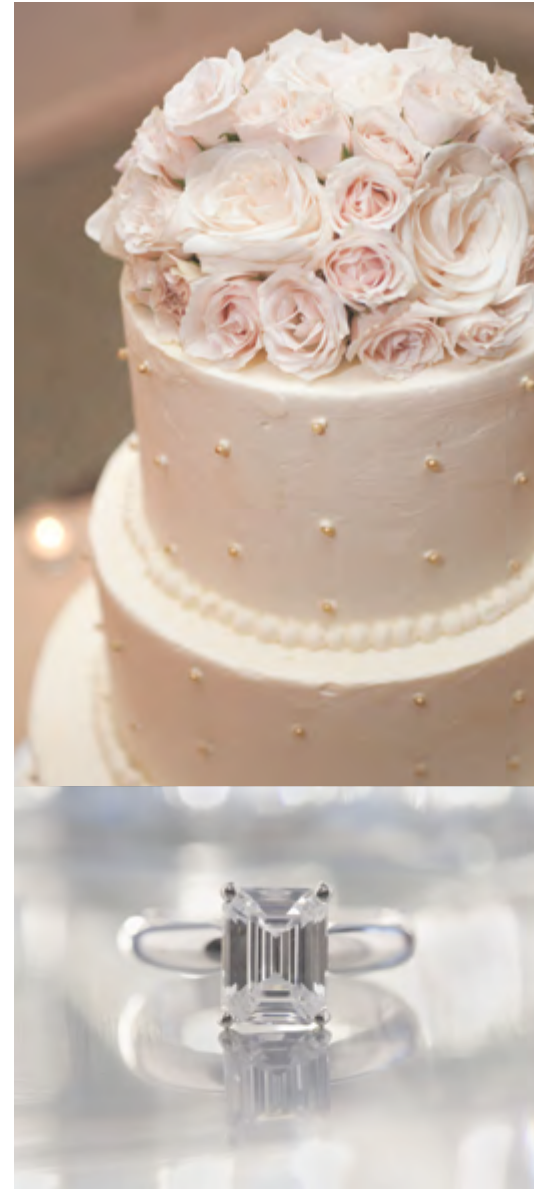

A spacious, luxurious, versatile ballroom, Atik Pasha is a chameleon of a venue, taking on the character of the happy couple and their chosen theme within merely hours. The elegant setting, the culinary mastery and acclaimed personal service of the Four Seasons, coupled with top-of-the-line technical infrastructure, render Atik Pasha as the venue of choice in Istanbul. Adjacent to the ballroom, the Atik Pasha foyer is a stylish and versatile space for pre-function cocktails and breaks.

W edding day is all about feeling special. It is definitely one of the milestones of one's life and will live on memories and pictures for eternity.

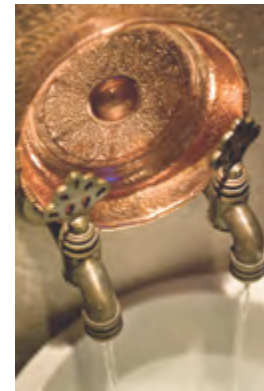

Conveniently located on the lobby level and adjacent to the terrace for an easy access, the Bosphorus Ballroom is a cozy venue with a seating capacity of up to 300. Awash with natural daylight and offering stunning views of the Bosphorus and the Asian hills through panoramic windows, Bosphorus Ballroom is ideal for smaller, boutique weddings or after-parties.

The bride is no doubt the lead actress of the wedding. Knowing how important the wedding day is for her, the staff members at Four Seasons go out of their way to pamper and spoil the bride and make her feel special. A leisurely breakfast in bed, overlooking the lovely Bosphorus, a relaxing swim or a gentle workout to get rid of the tension, a full body massage followed by one of the miracle face and body treatments in the spa will ensure that the bride will be relaxed and glowing for the ceremonies.

In every culture, getting ready to get married entails certain rituals and traditions. This cannot be truer for the Turkish culture where pre-wedding traditions mostly revolve around the hammam. The bride and groom have separate but equally lavish parties in the hammam, singing, dancing, snacking and generally making sure that the bride and groom feel pampered and special. Combining the millennia old traditions of Anatolia with modern treatments and natural and highly effective products by Sodashi and Natura Bissé, Spa&Hammam provides absolute relaxation and indulgence for the bride and groom.

Enjoying the amenities to the fullest at Four Seasons Hotel Istanbul at the Bosphorus is a must for the would be couple and their guests. An ideal choice to wind down with friends or family after the big day, the acclaimed Sunday Brunch is a cornucopia of local and international delicacies.

Customized menus, creative dishes that utilize the freshest local and international ingredients, sumptuous choices that are consistently delicious are in the milieu of our Banquet team. They are known for their absolute attention to detail, their dedication and the impeccable service they provide no matter the size and type of event.

An impressive entrance for the bride and groom into the venue or easy transfers between the two Four Seasons hotels and to and from the airport. Stylish yachts are the convenient, hassle-free and luxurious choice of transport for Four Seasons guests.

Four Seasons Sultanahmet

Located in what can best be described as the most privileged spot in the heart of the Old Town, Four Seasons Hotel Istanbul at Sultanahmet is a gem. A neo classical building with a fascinating history of its own, only few steps away from some of the most important landmarks from the Byzantine and Ottoman eras, Four Seasons Hotel Istanbul at Sultanahmet is where you come to feel the mystique of this magnificent city and breathe in the history that is all around. The extraordinary location combined with the spacious rooms, a serene courtyard and award winning service make this hotel a favorite for destination weddings.

A'YA Lounge, a unique open-air terrace with a magnificent view of the Hagia Sophia and Blue Mosque, overlooking the Hotel courtyard and the Sea of Marmara is the ideal venue for an event to remember.

A Sultanahmet wedding is like exquisite embroidery, it takes a lot of intricate, dedicated attention but the result is a refined, cozy, elegant affair that will be etched into everyone's memories. The graceful ballroom is a versatile space with elegant décor and modern technical amenities. Pre function areas make it easy to plan the event with a smooth flow.

Although among the selection of venues at Four Seasons Hotel Sultanahmet and Bosphorus, it is virtually impossible not to find a venue of one's liking, we realize there may be more unusual requests for weddings and pre and post wedding activities. A picnic, a cruise along the Bosphorus, a henna night or a bridal shower, whatever and wherever the need may be the Outside Catering team and technical experts will make it happen.

Bespoke menus, a full service approach that engage the commitment and expertise of everyone from the Executive Chef to the Event Planner, from the dish-washer to the engineer, from the valet to the service staff make the event perfect for the happy couple and their guests.

At Four Seasons Hotels Istanbul, in this magical, incredible city, creating happy memories that will last a life-time is our specialty, our passion. No detail is too small and no moment is too trivial for us on a wedding day. We make dreams come true and couples live out their fantasies.

We relish each and every wedding as a new opportunity to exceed expectations and share the joy of the guests. That is why a wedding in Istanbul is like no other in the world.

Come and discover.
