“Exchanging your vows here can be magical. Being by the sea simply screams romance, and our Dana Garden combines that intimate energy with the elegance of an opulent garden setting.

I'm glad to have witnessed special moments here, with so many isle-walks and I do's. The journey from the first meeting with the soon-to-be-weds to the first dance is so enjoyable for me, as I'm anticipating the beautifully emotional moments of the wedding the whole way through!”

“One of the most rewarding aspects of being a pastry chef, is that our creations are made for special moments.

There is a gâteau for every celebration, almost ritualistically connecting everyone and adding to their memory of the occasion. Creating a wedding cake for me, is an honour... for our art to take centre stage on the bride and groom's dream day is incredibly rewarding. Here's to more cakes and happily ever afters!”
